

Air Force Man to Claim Bride in Winter Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hugg of Boise, Idaho have formerly announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Peggy Lou, to Sergeant John R. Garner, United States Air Force. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr.

PEGGY LOU HUGG

and Mrs. John R. Garner of Anapola avenue.

Plans for a military wedding in First Christian Church of Boise have been made tentatively for the evening of Saturday, January 19.

Following their honeymoon, the sergeant and his bride plan to return to California where he is stationed at La Mesa near San Diego, as recruitment officer.

Miss Hugg received her diploma from Boise City High School and has just concluded a term as president of Theta Rho Girls in the Idaho city. Sgt. Garner was graduated from Torrance High with the class of '45 and completed his basic training with the Air Force at Keesler Field, Miss.

Woman's Club Arranges Meeting 16th

Due to a holiday deferment, the monthly business meeting of Torrance Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon, January 16, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. B. W. Roberts, president, will conduct the meeting and a delightful program of music has been arranged by Mrs. G. J. Derouin, program chairman.

The afternoon will be concluded by a tea under chairmanship of Mrs. H. L. Mitchell.

A full attendance has been requested by the president, as important matters will be voted upon.

Neighbors To Install

Lynn Davis Tells Vows In Episcopal Ceremony

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was the impressive setting for the double-ring, candlelight ceremony which united in marriage Miss Lynn Eleanor Davis and Robert C. Larmer, Rev. Arthur Bello officiated in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the principals.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. William A. Loftus of Redondo Beach and Mr. Harmer E. Davis of Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Larmer of Santa Ana are the bridegroom's parents.

Escorted to the altar and given away by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in white velvet designed with a bouffant ballerina skirt and a stand-up collar. Her veil of white lace was held by a Juliette cap and she carried white hyacinths surrounding a detachable corsage of cymbidiums.

Miss Shelley Malbin of Berkeley was maid of honor in electric blue velvet fashioned like the bride's gown. A Juliette cap ornamented with rhinestones and a spray of pink camellias complemented her costume.

Little Janice Wilder of San Fernando, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Harry Chan of Berkeley, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, attended him as best man. Ushers were Don Bobzin of Santa Ana and Gene Davis, brother of the bride.

A reception in the Arlington avenue home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wheaton, immediately followed the church ceremony. Later Mr. and Mrs. Larmer left for a honeymoon trip and upon their return will establish their home in Berkeley, where both will continue their studies at the University of California.
